GRUNDTVIG IN SERVICE TRAINING COURSE
ONE-WEEK ELEMENTARY TURKISH LANGUAGE AND TURKISH
CULTURE PROGRAM
İzmir, TURKEY
01/09/2013
06/09/2013

One-week elementary Turkish language and Turkish culture program will be organized at Yaşar University (www.yasar.edu.tr) in İzmir, Turkey.

The course aims to promote links between teachers, schools, organizations working with migrant groups/ethnic minorities, careers officers, educational guides and counselors who are involved in the adult education process in different countries of Europe. Moreover, to enhance the European dimension of learning and teaching, to refresh language learning skills, and to establish networks between participant teachers and institutions are among our goals.

The main purposes of the course are to teach learners to speak Turkish in daily use and to introduce them to Turkish culture. The participants are expected to be familiar with many aspects of contemporary Turkish culture and Turkish customs.

At the end of the seminar, participants are expected:

- To have developed language skills in Turkish (listening and speaking)

Course Dates: 01/09/2013 – 06/09/2013

PRACTICAL INFORMATION ABOUT İZMİR

Visiting and studying in İzmir is a truly unforgettable experience. İzmir, known as the “Pearl of the Aegean,” lies on the west coast of Turkey, right in the heart of Turkish-Aegean culture.

The Aegean region is home to many picture-perfect beaches, thermal hot springs, medieval castles and recreational activities such as scuba diving and wind surfing. Izmir also has a bevy of great restaurants and night clubs, but those looking for a slower pace of life can find it in one of the city’s many coffee and tea shops. Izmir has a lot to offer for its visitors.

Why don’t you come and explore?
