GRUNDTVIG IN SERVICE TRAINING COURSE
ONE-WEEK ELEMENTARY TURKISH LANGUAGE AND TURKISH CULTURE PROGRAM

İzmir, TURKEY

30/06/2013-05/07/2013

Second Session

25/08/2013- 30/08/2013

One-week elementary Turkish language and Turkish culture program will be organized at Yaşar University (www.yasar.edu.tr) in İzmir, Turkey.

The course aims to promote links between teachers, schools, and people who are involved in the adult education process in different countries of Europe. Moreover, to enhance the European dimension of learning and teaching, to refresh language skills, and to establish networks between participant teachers and institutions are among our goals.

The main purposes of the course are to teach learners to speak Turkish in daily use and to introduce to Turkish culture. The course also includes introduction to Turkish customs.

At the end of the seminar, participants are expected:

- To be familiar with the Turkish language
- To have developed language skills in Turkish (listening and speaking)

Course Dates: 30/06/2013 - 05/07/2012

Course Venue: İzmir, TURKEY

Deadline for registration: 14/01/2013

PRACTICAL INFORMATION ABOUT İZMİR

Visiting and studying in İzmir is a truly unforgettable experience. İzmir, known as the “Pearl of the Aegean,” lies on the west coast of Turkey, right in the heart of Turkish-Aegean culture.

The Aegean region is home to many picture-perfect beaches, thermal hot springs, medieval castles and recreational activities such as scuba diving and wind surfing. Izmir also has a bevy of great restaurants and night clubs, but those looking for a slower pace of life can find it in one of the city’s many coffee and tea shops. Izmir has a lot to offer for its visitors.

Why don’t you come and explore?
